B. The various ministries listed are regarded as gifts of grace

C. Purposes for elders' ministry:

1. Equipping Saints for works of service (NASV)
  - a. Alternate translations:
    - 1) “perfecting of the saints”, KJV
    - 2) “to prepare God’s people...” NIV
    - 3) “so that the saints together make a unity in the work...” JB
  - b. Meaning of the word “katartimos” (equipping)
    - 1) Translations from BAGD lexicon: “setting of a bone”; “preparation”; “restoration”; “equipping”; “training”
(Used only once in the New Testament)
    - 2) Verb form is “katartizo”
      - a) Means to “put in order”; “put into proper condition”; “to make complete”; “to prepare”; “to restore”
      - b) Verb form used several times, here are a few:
        - Matt 4:21 - mending their nets
        - Luke 6:40 - after he has been fully trained
        - Rom 9:22- of wrath prepared for destruction

-Gal 6:1 - restore such a one in a spirit of
-I Thess 3:10 - complete what is lacking in
-I Peter 5:10 - in Christ will perfect, confirm, ....

3) The idea the word portrays then, is to put into working order, or to put something into its intended condition.

2. This equipping is for the building up the Body of Christ
3. The building up is to lead to the unity of the faith
4. The building up is also to lead to the full knowledge of the son of God
5. The full knowledge of the Son is to lead to maturity
6. The maturity is to keep the saints grounded in sound doctrine

  - a. Part of this growth will come from speaking the truth in love (v.15)
  - b. The building up of the body will be in love (v.16b)

D. "Pastors and Teachers"

1. According to the sentence structure, both of these words may be speaking of elders, but from two different aspects.
2. Each of the words (apostles, evangelists, etc.) are preceded by a definite article "tous" and the conjunction "de" except for the word "teachers"
  - a. "Teachers" does not have an article and instead of "de", has the article "kai"
  - b. Difference between "de" and "kai"
    - 1) "De" is a stronger word, often used to show contrasts. An example would be - "I love her but (de) she loves him." It is usually translated "but", "rather", or "and"
    - 2) "Kai" is a simple connecting conjunction. An example would be "He is both Lord and (kai) Christ." It is usually translated as "and", "also", or "even".
3. The literal sense of the passage, then, could be saying: "...and some as evangelists, and some as pastors also/even teachers"

III. Acts 20:28-38

    - a. "Chrio" has a restricted meaning. It nearly always refers to a ritual or symbolic anointing (Hebrew-”masah”)

- b. Alepho, a more general word, is at times a synonymous word for Chrio. More often it refers to the physical act of anointing without religious overtones. (Hebrew-”suk” and “tuah”)

D. Possible meanings of the anointing of James 5:14

1. It was miraculous

- a. Since this was a general letter (not to one specific church), would have to assume that ALL elders had miraculous gifts
- b. There is no indication that this instruction was to involve a miracle
- c. Many miracles were practices without the use of anointing
- d. It is not the oil, but the Lord working through the faithful prayers of the elders that will make the sick person well.
- e. Jesus spoke of "moving mountains" through faith, and that is not necessarily miraculous

2. It was medicinal (as in Luke 10:34, the Good Samaritan)

- a. The word used in Luke 10:34 is not anoint.
- b. Both in Luke 10:34 and Isaiah 1:6, the oil was used specifically for wounds, not just any sickness

- c. There were more types of medicines than just oil. While oil might be useful in some ailments, it would be useless in others.
- d. There was a perfectly good word for "medicine" in Greek, but the word used here is "anointing with oil"
- e. Elders, not a physician were to be called

3. It was symbolic

- a. The oil was symbolic of commanding the sick person to God
- b. It was to be done in the "name of the Lord"
- c. The healing is not because of the oil, but because of faith. The actual healing comes from God.
-A parallel would be baptism. Salvation is not because of the water, but because of Faith. The actual forgiveness comes from God.
- d. This practice was widely used throughout church history. The early Greek church called it the "euchelaion", or "prayer oil"

Note: During the 7th century A.D., this practice had evolved into a ritual sacrament that became known as "extreme unction," which bore little resemblance to the original intended practice.

E. One thing stands clear from this text in James, part of the Elder's ministry involves prayer for those in his flock.
