V. Note that the way we live, our attitudes, and our actions are connected to the character of God. If God is good, then we are to be good. If God is love, then we are to love. We are to be like the God that created us.

God made man in his image in Genesis 1-2. When sin entered into their lives, that image was corrupted. God's goal is to restore that image that was corrupted by sin. Write about attributes of God that you have the most struggles appropriating in your life:

VII. What can you do to be more like God in the attributes you have the most struggle with?

VIII. Make a written commitment here to eliminate things that cause you to fall short of being transformed into his image.
